

Fort Tabarsi

Words and Music by Jeanne (Murday) Foust

Arr: Elaine Losey

From Fort Ta - bar - si they rode, — they rode. From Fort Ta - bar-si they From Ney - riz — they rode. From Ney - riz — they From Zan - jan — they rode. From Zan - jan — they Mount your steeds, O He - roes of God. — Mount your steeds, O

rode. They raised the clar - i - on call, "Ya Ba - ha - 'u'l - Ab - rode. They raised the clar - i - on call, "Ya Ba - ha - 'u'l - Ab - rode. They raised the clar - i - on call, "Ya Ba - ha - 'u'l - Ab -
 men. — Raise the clar - i - on call, "Ya Ba - ha - 'u'l - Ab - ha! Ya A - li - 'u'l - A - llah!" To the Glo - ry of God they raised the call:

 ha! Ya A - li - 'u'l - A - llah!" To the Glo - ry of God they raised the call:
 ha! Ya A - li - 'u'l - A - llah!" To the Glo - ry of God they raised the call:
 ha! Ya A - li - 'u'l - A - llah!" To the Glo - ry of God we'll raise the call:

"Ya Ba - ha - 'u'l - Ab - ha! Ya A - li - 'u'l - A - llah!" From
 "Ya Ba - ha - 'u'l - Ab - ha! Ya A - li - 'u'l - A - llah!" From
 "Ya Ba - ha - 'u'l - Ab - ha! Ya A - li - 'u'l - A - llah!"
 "Ya Ba - ha - 'u'l - Ab - ha! Ya A - li - 'u'l - A - llah!"

"Ya Baha'u'l-Abha" means "O Thou Glory of the All-Glorious," referring to Baha'u'llah.

"Ya Ali'u'l-Allah" means "O Ali, You are the Symbol of God on Earth," referring to The Bab.

(C)Copyright Jeanne Foust, used with her permission